MAN ARRESTED FOR FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY

A New Bern man has been arrested after breaking into an occupied apartment early this morning.

Police were called to L-107 Trent Court at 4:30 a.m., after a woman reported her ex-boyfriend had broken into her home. She told officers he punched out the window in the back door, entered and took her cell phone and a jacket from the apartment. The suspect, identified as Aubrey Cornell WILSON, 08/24/1985, of 94 Prescott Rd., fled the scene before officers arrived.

WILSON was later located at 917-A Bloomfield St. He was taken in custody and charged with First Degree Burglary, Felony Larceny after Breaking and Entering, Felony Possession of Stolen Property, Assault on a Female and Injury to Real Property. WILSON was placed in the Craven County jail, and due to the domestic nature of the incident was held without bond. He is scheduled to make a first appearance in court today.

The New Bern Police Department is committed to Community Policing. Citizens are encouraged to become a “Partner in Policing,” by reporting suspected illegal activity to the New Bern Police Department’s TIPS line at (252) 636-5034 or the Craven County Crime Stoppers line at 633-5141.

For additional information, please contact Beth Stevenson, Public Information Officer at the New Bern Police Department at (252) 672-4211.
