

On behalf of the men and women of the New Bern Police Department, welcome to our website. We hope you find it informative and we encourage you to visit the site often to interact with us, learn more about the department, or to find out about programs and ongoing activities offered by the department throughout the year.

The New Bern Police Department is dedicated to providing outstanding services under the philosophy of community policing. We recognize the importance of community partnerships and strive to deliver law enforcement services with integrity, respect and fairness while promoting a safe environment. All persons, whether residents or non-residents and regardless of background, economic status or living conditions, shall be afforded fair and impartial police services.

The New Bern Police Department has a rich history of over 200 years of service. Our heritage continues as we employ new technologies, equipment, and strategies; but our commitment to serve and protect has never been stronger. As a trusted partner we intend to meet the challenges of the future.

TOGETHER, we can enhance safety and address quality of life issues.

Thank you for your interest in the department. We invite your comments through the “Citizen’s Survey” section; please let us know how we can best serve you.
